

THE ROSEATE

NEW DELHI

The Roseate New Delhi is a one of its kind urban resort with 8 acres of verdant green and unperturbed water bodies which fuse seamlessly with award-winning architecture. It is the epitome of luxury and hospitality that offers an indefectible escape from tedious city life. Known as one of the peerless resorts in Delhi, The Roseate is only a few minutes drive from the international airport, shopping malls, embassies and offices in Delhi and Gurugram. The Roseate conserves its eternal tranquil environment for its guests.

Inspired by the five elements of Hindu philosophy – air, water, fire, earth and sky, internationally acclaimed architect Khun Lek Bunnag conceived The Roseate New Delhi. The Roseate New Delhi's regally columned verandahs that are a mnemonic of the royal lineage of Delhi and the ornate greens enveloping more than 2000 matured trees and 3 acres of water bodies are not the only reason for it to be considered an architectural beauty. The resort possesses intricate bronze meshwork in the guest areas, over 20 ft high doors, high dome ceilings and Isfahan pillars fused with a five century old Moghul architecture personifying the monumental ambience that exuberates aristocracy.

The water element is symbolised with waterways which journey along the length of the resort stimulating a therapeutic detox to industrious city life. To perpetuate this feeling of tranquillity, 650,000 brass ficus leaves have taken up the wall not only as a design element but to act as insulators to the city sound.
